Executive Summary

Performance Summary

The META advertising campaign has seen a total spend of $178,066.85 over the last 14 days, but it has not generated any impressions or clicks, resulting in a CTR of 0%. This indicates a severe issue with ad visibility or targeting.

Notable Trends or Patterns

- The campaign is heavily skewed towards male spending, with a combined total of $38,418.10 for male audiences compared to $6,962.93 for female.
- There is a significant amount of budget allocation without any engagement metrics, suggesting inefficiencies in ad placement or audience targeting.

Actionable Recommendations

- Review and optimize audience targeting to ensure the ads reach a relevant demographic, potentially adjusting the gender focus based on performance data.
- Conduct A/B testing on ad creatives and formats to identify what resonates with the audience and adjust campaigns accordingly.
- Examine the ad placement settings to ensure ads are not restricted from showing on certain placements, which may contribute to zero impressions.
